features

- 10 techtrends By Kenneth Wong
In the Eye of a BIMStorm
Industry professionals are eager to support recovery efforts in Haiti, and Onuma's online collaboration platform is helping them do just that.
- 14 cadalystlabsreport By Nancy Johnson and Cyrena Respini-Irwin
100 Fabulous Freebies for the CAD User
What's better than a fantastic tool that streamlines your CAD workflow? Finding that tool for free!

columns

- 30 cadmanager By Robert Green
Maximum Training for Minimum Money
Don't let a slashed budget derail your training plans. Find free (and almost free) ways to support self-learning, and help your users help themselves.
- 32 circlesandlines By Lynn Allen
Step Up the Power of Parametrics
Too busy — or too lazy — to add geometric constraints individually? The new AutoConstrain feature is for you!
- 34 userprofile By Nancy Spurling Johnson
3D Perfected
More than just a SolidWorks rockstar, Rodney Hall is a tireless 3D CAD evangelist who shares his passion as a CAD manager, instructor, and user group leader.

cadalystlabsreviews

- 21 cadalystlabsreview By R.K. McSwain
ARES Commander Edition
It lacks a few significant AutoCAD features, but value-priced ARES could complement or replace your current 2D/3D CAD software — even if you're a Mac user.
- 24 firstlook By Robert Green
AutoCAD 2011
Whether you're working in 2D or 3D, the latest version of Autodesk's flagship CAD software promises enhanced productivity and better control.
- 26 firstlook By Ron LaFon
HP Z200 Workstation
This multicore workhorse offers plenty of power, a compact form factor, and a price more akin to a standard desktop PC than a CAD-capable workstation.
- 28 firstlook By Ron LaFon
Dell Precision M6500 Mobile Workstation
There's no need to choose between performance and mobility. With this heavy hitter, you can take the power of a desktop system on the road.
